

COMMUNISM

- I Prior to the 1917 "Boleshevik Revolution" Russia was under the control of a Czarist Monarchy.
- A. In 1917 the Bolesheviks led a successful revolt against the government and installed Communist Party leaders in key government positions. Less than 1% of the Russian people were Communists at this time.
- B. The Communist government thus set up, based its structure and goals on the doctrine of "Karl Marx" who created the philosophy of Communism.
- (1) The leaders of the Communists at this time were:
- Lenin
Trotsky
Stalin
- (2) Lenin was established as the first leader of the Communist Party.
- II The organization of the Communist form of government in Russia gave birth to the new doctrine of world conquest by subversion, espionage, and economic means.
- A. A central government agency was formed - The "Comintern" - whose purpose was to help incite revolution all over the Capitalist or Democratic world.
- B. Russia is controlled by only a few, generally unknown leaders. Since 1917, at the time of the revolution the Russian people has been under the heel of a Communist Dictatorship.
- (1) This is against the philosophy of Marx, whose doctrine stated that the society would be one based on equality and would be Classless. A society of workers
- C. Russia is a Political State - Controlled and Policed by a Central Communist Party.
- (1) In Russia the Church has been crushed.
- (2) In Russia the people who voice dissent or argue against the political doctrines of the party usually wind up in Concentration Camps or Slave Labor Camps.
- (3) Voting is based on the One Party system - One party; One candidate.
- (4) The Radio and Newspapers, etc. are State Controlled.

- III Russia has one of the most active "5th Column" movements in the world:
- A. Its purpose is to create unrest in illiterate, poverty stricken countries where the Communist "Line" sounds good.
- B. The incitement of riot, and trouble of any kind is the work of the Russian 5th Column members in our current "Cold War".

"Democracy and Communism cannot live side by side!" Russia intends to crush Democracy, if it can. ITS UP TO US TO SEE THAT THEY DON'T. * From Film
